Miro Švolík is internationally renowned for his staged photographs of whimsically arranged people and objects lying on the landscape. Taken from above, the subjects seemingly defy gravity. Inspired by Slovak folk tales and the science fiction of Jules Verne, these “live pictures” are memories from his imaginative childhood. Švolík is head of the creative photography studio at the Academy of Fine Arts and Design (VŠVU) in Bratislava, Slovakia.

Persons needing accommodation for a disability should contact the Office of Student Life at 281-283-2560. This exhibition is generously supported by Houston Endowment Inc. and UHCL Cultural Arts, Office of University Advancement, and Office of the Dean of the School of Human Sciences and Humanities.
